Interest.

No blither draws sharper than interest does. Of all industries none is comparable to that of interest. It works all day and night, in fair weather and in foul. It has no sound in its footsteps, but travels fast. It gnaws at a man's substance with invisible teeth. It binds industry with its film as a fly is bound in a spider's web. Debts roll a man over and over, binding hand and foot, letting him hang upon the fatal mesh until the long-legged interest devours him. There is but one thing on a farm like it, and that is the Canada thistle, which swarms new plants every time you break roots, whose blossoms are prolific, and every flower the father of a million seeds; every leaf is an awl, every flower like a platoon of bayonets, and a field of them like an armed host. The whole plant is a torment and vegetable curse. And yet a farmer had better make his bed of Canada thistles than attempt to be at ease on interest.

Spring Fever.

Toilers in city stores, offices and cellars think of the country, and imagine it would be a fine thing to lie under the trees on the grass. Dwellers in the country know that there is very little grass under the trees, and that the ground under the grass is damp. But the farmer has his touch of the spring fever for all that, and finds it agreeable to lean against the south side of the barn and chew straw. Such weather sets the heels to laying briskly, and the barnyard rounds with their cackling. Even the sedate cows refuse their hay, and look longingly toward the pasture lot, whose brown surface is beginning to take on a faint green hue. Not much work is done on the farm on such a day, and at nightfall the farmer's boy thinks it would be a good thing to hitch up the bay colt and visit the young woman whom he has been taking to sing school all winter.

The New York correspondent of the Hartford Times writes as follows of preachers' salaries: "This mention of church matters reminds me of the handsome addition lately made to Dr. Hall's salary. Next to Mr. Beecher, Dr. Hall is now the best paid preacher in America. He came to New York ten years ago under a contract to receive $10,000 a year in gold. The amount is now increased to $15,000. But this is not all. Dr. Hall gets a fine house rent free. The house is worth at least $5,000 a year, so the doctor's salary is really $18,000. Mr. Beecher is paid $20,000, but gets nothing more. He lives in his own house, which carries a pretty heavy mortgage.

Long visits, long stories, long essays, long exhortations, and long prayers, seldom profit those who have to do with them. Life is short. Time is short. Moments are precious. Learn to condense, abridge and intensify. We can endure many an ache and ill if it is only over soon, while even pleasures grow insipid, and pain intolerable, if they are protracted beyond the limits of reason and convenience. Learn to be short. Lop off branches; stick to the main facts in your case. If you pray, ask for what you would receive, and get through; if you speak, tell your message and hold your peace; bid down two words into one, and three into two. Always learn to be short.

VIRGINIA FOR JUDGE FIELD.—We are not of those who deride and speak contemptuously of Mr. Tilden. We think it would be a calamity to the party to nominate him, for it is as plain as day that he could not be elected. If he and General Grant are nominated, it is our belief that the State of Virginia would go for General Grant. If Judge Field and General Grant were nominated, it is our fixed belief that the State of Virginia would go for Judge Field by an overwhelming majority. — [Richmond Commonwealth.]

A man told his friend that he had joined the army. "What regiment?" his friend asked. "Oh, I don't mean that; I mean the army of the Lord." "Ah, what church?" "The Baptists." "Why," was the reply "that's not the army; it's the navy."

How the Future Emperor of Austria Proposed.

The Archduke Rudolph proposed in person to Princess Stephanie, of Belgium, at an evening party given in his honor at the Chateau de Laken on March 7. Among the amusements provided for their Majesty's guests were conjuring performances by the celebrated prestidigitator, Prof. Hermann, and a concert in the magnificent conservatory attached to the castle. Matters had been so arranged that when the company were conducted from the saloon in which Hermann had held his seance to the Winter Garden, the Archduke and the Princess were left together tele-a-tete for a few minutes.

As soon as they were alone the future Emperor-King approached her Royal Highness with a low and formal obeisance, saying, "Madame, you take me for a husband?" to which plain question the Princess simply replied, courtesying deeply, "Yes, your Imperial Highness." "Your Royal Highness' answer makes me supremely happy," observed the Archduke. "And I," rejoined Princess Stephanie, "promise that I will do my duty toward you under all circumstances." No more was said, but the youthful pair, arm in arm, joined the royal circle in the Winter Garden, and the Archduke leading his fair companion up to her father, addressed King Leopold as follows: "Sire, I have with your Majesty's permission begged the Princess Stephanie to bestow her hand upon me. It is my happy privilege to inform you that my petition has been granted." "I rejoice, Monseigneur," replied the King, "to greet you as my son-in-law." The princess embraced her mother, and immediately afterward the Imperial royal betrothal was announced to the assembled company. — [London Telegraph.]

How the Census Will be Taken.

The penalty for obstructing the census takers, who begin their labors on the first Monday in June, are severe. The law says: All persons above the age of twenty-one years who shall refuse to furnish the information required by the supervisor or enumerator shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $100, to be recovered in action of debt. Presidents, directors or other officials of private corporations who refuse to furnish information required of them are made liable to a penalty not to exceed $100. Only two weeks are allowed for the completion of the census. The compensation to the enumerators is as follows: Two cents for each living inhabitant; two cents for each death reported; ten cents for each farm; fifteen cents for each manufactory, which is to be in full for all services, and no mileage or traveling expenses.

POPULATION.—The Journal of the Society of Arts gives the population of the globe as 1,421,000,000, at a rough calculation—Europe, 309,000,000; Asia, 824,000,000; Africa, 199,000,000; Oceania, 4,000,000; America, 85,000,000. The annual number of deaths throughout the world is put at 35,693,350, or 97,790 persons each day. The balance of the population is, however, kept up by births at the rate of 104,800 per day.

Kentucky will march proudly into the Chicago Convention and cast her vote for Grant. And that will be the last that will be heard of Kentucky until some of her Grant-enamored statesmen step to the front to receive a share of the "spoils" that other States will be called upon to win. — [Cincinnati Commercial.]

A lady of Evansville, Ind., who had been grossly insulted several times in the streets of that place finally drew a hatchet and sunk it in the cheek of the insolent, cutting through to the bone. This is one way to bury the hatchet, and it was a pretty good one.

Rest is never so sweet as after a long struggle; strength never so strong as through trial; joy is a more blessed thing after sorrow; and the fair dancing of sunny days could never come if we had no night.

A clergyman in Northern Indiana ascended the pulpit the other Sunday and said, "No man can serve the Lord while he has the jumping tooth-ache. I therefore dismiss the congregation."

Rhode Island has a Bank which was established in 1795. It never lost a cent, never discharged an official, and never had over $20,000 on deposit at one time.

One of the hardest lessons to learn in life is that the man who differs with you, not only in opinions, but in principles, may be as honest and sincere as yourself.

TILDEN has shown himself master of the situation in New York, and although the State Convention that assembled at Syracuse, Tuesday, did not exactly instruct for him, the old platform on which he was elected before, and the resolutions to make the great fraud the paramount issue of the coming canvass, coupled with the fact that a big majority of the delegates to the National Convention are his friends, and on the unit rule, which was adopted, can control the delegation, it is plain to see that if Tilden desires it, he will be a formidable candidate for the Presidential nomination, or he will be able to have a big hand in naming the candidate. In the management of the Convention Tilden has shown great sagacity and wonderful leadership. On the first test vote before the body, Tilden's friends showed up 295 to 80, and after that everything passed off quietly and harmoniously. Traitor Kelly and his followers, bar-keepers and cut-throats predominating, were on hand and held a little convention of their own in another hall, and with their usual arrogance passed resolutions, dictating who shall not be the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention. They named a lot of delegates who will not be admitted to the Convention, and then all that will be left for Mr. Kelly to do, if Tilden is nominated, is to follow up his insolent and devilish designs, by attempting to cause the loss of New York to the Democracy, and the consequent loss of the Presidency. But we do not magnify Kelly's importance to the extent as to believe that he can do these things. We believe that a majority of his followers will lose no time in choosing between Tilden, if he be nominated, and the Duke of America on a third term platform.

As a Democrat, we put in our most earnest protest against the action of the County Committee, which decided some time ago to allow every person to vote in the primary who promises to support the Democratic ticket at the August election. We want a nominee made by the bona fide Democrats, and if the floaters and others who have no good political record, but will vote any way for a drink of whiskey, are allowed to offset the vote of a true Democrat, then a primary election falls to decide who is the choice of the party. We are not aware which of the candidates this plan will injure, if any of them, but we want the man who gets the nomination to be the choice of a majority of the Democrats of the county, and not one who lugs to rely on the outside rabble to make his calling and election sure. If the matter were left to a Convention none but Democrats would be allowed to participate, and the rule should certainly hold good in the primaries. It will not do to trust to the promises of a floater. We have seen them broken too often, and experience ought to teach us something. When the County Committee meets next Tuesday, we hope it will consider this matter and re-consider its action.

The greed for office grows eternal in the breast of the average Kentuckian and the haste of many to secure an appointment to a position made vacant by the death of the holder is often wanting in decency, if not absolutely disgraceful. For instance, in less than twenty-five minutes after Judge South dropped dead in the Senate Chamber, the other day, Governor Blackburn was applied to for the position of keeper of the Penitentiary by a number of fools who did not know that the Governor had not the right to make such appointment while the Legislature is in session.

HON. CHAS. A. HADEN, one of the cleverest of men and the brightest of lawyers, carried every precinct in Marion county at the primary, and his nomination for Circuit Judge over Judge Wickliffe is assured on the first ballot. We are proud of this for two reasons, because of the worth of Mr. Haden and because it takes from the bench a man who showed such inexcusable ignorance in his management of the Grove Kenney case. Judge Hardin, we salute you!

TEXAS held her Democratic Convention Wednesday, but did not instruct her delegates. The resolutions adopted favor the two-thirds rule and promise the undivided support of the State to whomsoever is made the nominee of the National Convention. It was also resolved that if she is ever called on, Texas will show her appreciation of the generosity and magnanimity of General Hancock in his devotion to the constitutional rights and privileges of citizens, be they located North or South.

THE Governor has appointed his cousin, Dr. A. W. Bartlett, to succeed Dr. Chenault as Superintendent of the Lexington Lunatic Asylum. We hope the old man will be able to provide for all his "poor kin" before his term expires. As regards nepotism, Blackburn is but a Grant, on a smaller scale.

THE absence of a sufficiency of county pride has kept the worthy men of Lincoln in the background, while others with no higher or better qualifications have been exalted to office. It is a mighty good principle to stand by your home folks, especially if all other things are equal and a little more so.

Call of the Democratic County Committee.

STANFORD, KY., April 19th, 1890.

The Democratic Committee for Lincoln county will meet at the office of W. H. Miller, in Stanford, on Tuesday, April 27th, 1890, at 2 o'clock P. M., to fix a time and manner of holding a primary election for the nomination of Democratic candidates for the office of Circuit Court Clerk and Sheriff, and to appoint officers of such election. By order of the Chairman of the Committee.

H. S. WITHERS, Chairman.

W. H. MILLER, Secretary.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

—The Senate has passed a bill to incorporate the Louisville, Lawrenceburg & Harrodsburg R. R. Company.

—A bill has been introduced to prevent the intoxication of attorneys at law in this Commonwealth.

—The House has concurred in the Senate bill to change the time of the meeting of the General Assembly to November.

—The Senate refused to concur in the House bill to pay a reward of $50 out of the Treasury to the capturers of horse thieves.

—The House, after doing all in its power during his life to annoy and vilify Jesse South, adjourned for three days in respect to his memory.

—The House has again resolved to adjourn; this time the date is fixed at April 25th, but the Senate is as dumb as an oyster on the subject.

—A bill for the benefit of A. M. Feland was introduced in the Senate by Mr. Bruce Tuesday. We hope it will pass, as we think Mr. Feland was treated a little unfairly in regard to his delinquent list.

—On motion of Senator Bruce a resolution has been adopted in the Senate prohibiting any species over five minutes in length, except in the discussion of the Penitentiary bill. Wonder how Senators Blackburn and Berry will dispose of their extra gas? Unless there is an escape they are bound to burst.

—A bill to require all the voters in Danville to pay their town tax before asserting that prerogative, and to allow all bona fide residents of Boyle, who own property in the town to vote in the municipal elections, has passed the House. A better local bill has not had the attention of that body this session, and we hope the Senate will concur in it. Then let the silly editor of the Tribune howl. It will be about as sensible as he generally does.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—A powder mill explosion, near San Francisco, Cal., on Saturday, killed 25 persons.

—Bids for the construction of a stone jail at Lebanon, Ky., are advertised to close on May 15th.

—The National Committee on Claims has reported favorably on the Somerset Ky. Claim.

—Dennis Kearney, San Francisco agitator, is now wearing a felon's dress in the California House of Correction.

—The Winchester Sun hits the nail on the head when it says that "the Legislature has no notion of adjourning or doing anything else."

—The Mayor of Louisville has issued a proclamation that he will enforce the Sunday law to the letter, not even allowing the newspapers to escape.

—The bill to pension the Mexican soldiers was before the lower House of Congress Monday, and received 49 majority, but not the necessary two-thirds.

—The house, at Russellville, Ky., of Col. J. W. Winckle, late private Secretary to Gov. McCreary, was destroyed by fire, this week, causing a loss of $3,000.

—And now it is said that that beautiful specimen of a Democrat, Postmaster General Key, is striving to work up a boom for himself as Vice-President on the Grant ticket.

—Maj. Hotchkiss, General Traveling Agent of the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R., has arranged for an excursion from Maryland, Ky., to Richmond, Va., at $12 for the round trip. Steamboat will leave Maryland May 4th.

—Col. Stoddard Johnston, President of the Kentucky Press Association, is in Ashland, and has authorized a Cincinnati Enquirer correspondent to say that there will be no postponement of the meeting, which takes place June 9th.

—James Kinisid, of Carlisle, while a passenger on the Mayville R. R., this week, put his head out of a window to examine a bridge, and had his brains scattered in every direction, by coming in contact with one of the uprights of the structure.

—A tornado swept over Webster county, Mo., on the 19th, almost entirely demolishing the county seat, Marshallfield. Eighty-one lives were lost and over two hundred persons were wounded. But 14 houses of the thriving little town remain standing.

—The Cincinnati Commercial attributes the kicking down of Bristol and the placing a wreath of laurels on the brow of Grant by the Kentucky Republicans, to the quality of Louisville whiskey, which it says is "mean enough to make a man steal his own carpet-sack."

—The heaviest snow blockade ever known on the Central Pacific R. R. occurred a few days ago. A snow-plow, driven with eight engines, could make but the slowest progress. The snow sheds are broken down for miles, and travel has been seriously interrupted.

—On Saturday last the stock of the Louisville & Nashville tumbled from 150 to 115. The panic is said to have been caused by a number of absurd rumors, one of which was that a big law-suit, which was bound to be decided against the road, would seriously shake and weaken it.

—Hon. Thos. Turner has written to his district that he will get appropriations this session as follows: $55,000 to begin looking and damming the Big Sandy River; $55,000 for the Cumberland; $20,000 to be expended between the Kentucky line and the falls of Cumberland, and $35,000 to begin a canal around the falls. The latter item is all bush; a hundred thousand dollars would hardly start the job.

—Democratic members of the Senate Committee on Rules and the subject of coming Electoral votes have substantially decided to recommend Congress to adopt the new joint rule, providing that in case only one certificate of the Electoral vote of a State be presented to Congress, it shall not be rejected except by an affirmative vote of the two-thirds, and that in case of dual returns neither shall be counted unless the two houses agree that one of them is the true and valid return.

BOYLE COUNTY.

Danville.

—The match game of foot ball played here on Saturday last between the Danville and Lexington teams, resulted in a victory in favor of the latter by a score of 5 to 1.

—Owsley and Alcorn spoke to a good crowd at the Court-house on Monday. Alcorn was carrying on a little flirtation with the Judge's girl but Owsley went to marry it.

—The Lower House passed on last Monday a bill to amend the Charter of the Town of Danville, requiring all persons to pay their taxes before they shall be allowed to vote. This requirement is, in effect, already embodied in our Charter but has never been enforced.

—Col. D. W. Jones, the member of roads, calls a meeting of the Stockholders in the Danville and Hustonville Turnpike road company, to be held at the Farmers' National Bank in Danville on Saturday, May 1, for the purpose of electing President and Directors for the ensuing year.

DEATHS.—In Danville, on Monday morning, in the 48th year of her age, Mrs. Susan Williams, wife of Milton Williams. In Boyle county, last week, at an advanced age, Samuel Kirkendall. —Dr. McKee's meetings at the Second Presbyterian Church are held twice a day, at 4 and 8 P. M. The closing exercises of the present session of the Danville Theological Seminary were conducted at the Second Church on Wednesday. Dr. John S. Hays presided, Rev. Chas. Hutchinson, D. D., of New Albany, delivered the annual address, and Dr. E. P. Humphrey, of Louisville, with appropriate remarks, presented the usual certificates to the senior class—three in number.

PERSONAL.—The firm of Lucas & Kinnaird has been, by mutual consent, dissolved. Mr. Kinnaird retiring. Mrs. Lottie Christman and Miss Lottie Duke, daughters of Col. Wm. Duke, arrived at Danville last week from Independence, Mo. Capt. Jack Bishop is back from New York. Little Miss Britton, of Charleston, S. C., aged 12 years, is canvassing county soliciting subscribers for a little paper edited and published by herself. Terms, 50 cents per year, immediately in advance.

COURT DAY.—The crowd was rather slim on account of the leaky state of the sky-blue sky. T. D. English reports a supply of cattle and sheep but slim attendance of stock men. Cattle ranged from $2 to 4 cents. Sold 175 yearling sheep at $2.35 per head; one solid brown mare $116; one do. $83. The late residence of Mrs. Sallie Mock, on Lexington street, was sold to W. H. Lucas for $1,700. One hundred and twenty-six dollars worth of property was sold for taxes, principally to J. B. McFerran. The contested bill was case was continued and the will of Samuel Kirkendall probated.

GARRARD COUNTY.

Lancaster.

—Our April County Court next Monday.

—The final passage of the Fish Bill, some week ago, concerning fishing in the waters of Dix River and Hanging Fork, prohibits all manner of fishing (hook and line included) from the 1st of May to the 1st of August in these streams. The object of this is to protect the fish during the spawning season.

—By an order from the Postmaster-General, the U. S. mail-line between Lancaster and Danville will be discontinued on and after the 25th day of April. Mail will go from Englewood's Mill to Danville and return three times per week. Spratt & Griffin will continue their stage line, however, between Lancaster and Danville.

—The Baptist projected meeting, under the guidance of Elds. Bruce, Tupper and Harvey, still goes on with good prospects. Seven additions up to present date. Our Methodist minister, T. B. Cook, after an absence of several weeks, holding a meeting in Harrodsburg, has returned. Rev. A. D. Spilman, of Harrodsburg, preached at Point Lick on the first and third Sunday in each month.

—Mr. H. T. Noel, Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, has called a meeting of all the Democrats in the county on Monday next, to select candidates for our coming August contest. It is presumed that Mr. John Higginbotham, our present Sheriff, and Mr. Jas. McCreary, with J. H. Dunn as deputy, will be nominated for Sheriff and Circuit Clerk, as these men are regarded by the party as the strongest and most available men in the Democratic ranks, and as there are no other aspirants so far.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Robert Dunn, of this place, has gone to Richmond to live. Not only the boys, but several of the young ladies, regret exceedingly to give him up. We wish him success and hope he will give us as frequently. Misses Kate and Alma Wherritt are visiting friends in Richmond. Messrs. Jim Walker, John Burnam, Wm. Wherritt and Curtis were down Sunday from Richmond. Mr. John Bryant and J. X. Dunn were here from Bryansville. Dr. George Perkins, of Somerset, candidate for delegate from this District to the Cincinnati Convention, is in town. Mr. Samuel Harris, assistant Postmaster at Louisville, and Mr. John Bryant, of Louisville, were here this week. Mr. R. C. Warren and family returned to your place from here this week. Miss Marian Wolford of Hamilton College, Lexington, is here on a short visit. Col. J. H. Bruce was home from Frankfort Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Theodore Curry is in Louisville on business. Our town affairs are a night watch now, in the person of Wm. J. Floyd.

Point Lick.

DEATHS.—John Ameringer, the oldest citizen of Madison county, is dead. He had reached the advanced age of ninety-nine and a half years. The wife of Geo. F. Anderson, of Richmond, and daughter of Wm. Higginbotham, of Garrard county, died on the 17th inst. She was only 23 years of age, and leaves two small children, the younger a mere babe of a few days.

PERSONAL.—W. S. Knott, L. & N. R. R. Inspector of Agencies, was here this week. W. L. Barnes and A. D. Jones, Jr., of Kicksville, left Wednesday for the city. Tom Best is in Richmond. Mrs. Capt. Jack Adams, of Mr. Vernon, was here this week on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Siegel. May Adams will be the latest bride during the summer. O. S. Collins, wife and Miss Lucy Bronson, of Richmond, visited the family of D. K. Best on Sunday.

—The news of a bloody pistol matter at the foot of Big Hill, Jackson county, near the Madison line, on Friday evening, reached this place Saturday. The particulars, as we learn them, are as follows: W. P. and Charles Rogers, of Garrard, with Mr. Ballard, who had gone to Jackson county to buy stock, came across Jas. Russell Isaacs and his nephew, J. R. Isaacs, Jr., when an altercation ensued. Pistols were drawn but friends interposed and the affair receded amicably settled. Rogers, to prove his sincerity, gave his pistol to Ballard, and they went on their way, but had gotten but half a mile when the Isaacs again overtook them. Jas. B. Isaacs immediately drew his pistol and would have killed W. P. Rogers, but he fell from his horse and thus avoided the shot. At this juncture James Russell Isaacs clinched with Rogers as he rose from the ground, and a general firing began. Ballard had in the meantime returned to Rogers his pistol. After the parties had emptied their pistols, Rogers retained his hold on Isaacs, and the latter fell back dead. Jas. B. Isaacs, who was slightly wounded, fled. Charles Rogers received a painful wound in the back. Ballard and Charles Rogers went to McKee, the county-seat of Jackson, on Saturday, and surrendered themselves for trial, and are now there in the hands of the officials. W. P. Rogers, at last accounts, had not surrendered himself, and it is presumed he is afraid to do so, fearing vengeance at the hands of the friends of the deceased Isaacs.

ROCKCASTLE.

Mt. Vernon.

—On the 19th inst. our County Clerk issued license for the marriage of Mr. Levi Hubble and Miss Cynthia A. Proctor. The bride is a daughter of W. G. Proctor, Esq.

—Bark-peeling is now in full blast, and the sides of the hills are covered with the new, clean, white logs. Brinkley & McKee, of this place, have secured several of the new bark. Harris Baker claims that he shipped the first car which left here this season.

—It's a little singular that every time the Grand jury meets, the "boys" think it is a good time to go fishing. The fish in Roundstone and Rockcastle never "bite" half as well as when Circuit Court is in session.

—Heavy rains fell in this county last Sunday night and Monday. Although the Spring has been a "forward creature," the late "wetness" has caused the farmers to be behind with their crops. Very little corn has been planted.

—The young gentlemen and ladies of the Academy have organized a literary society which meets in the school-building every Wednesday night. The exercises consist of debates, essays, declamations, &c. The well-behaved portion of the public is admitted.

—Several of the neighboring county papers are boasting that their county jails are empty. Well, our county jail is empty, too. The fact is, if you were to fill the building with prisoners it would be empty in a few minutes. It's no trouble to make an "escape" from our jail. Let's abolish it!

Next Monday the regular Spring Term of the Circuit Court will convene at this place. The civil docket is an exceedingly light one, and contains no cases of interest. The criminal docket, as usual, is large. There are five cases of murder, only two of which are likely to be tried, the defendants in the other cases being on bail in custody.

As there have been three homicides in the county since the adjournment of the last Grand Jury, the one which meets next Monday will have plenty of work to do.

—Mr. John C. Truvel, of Danville, lectured on his travels in Constantinople and Egypt to a good audience in the Court-house last Tuesday night. Mr. Young had intended to lecture on the "Lost Arts," but at the request of our citizens changed his subject to the one mentioned above. Of his merits as a lecturer I need not speak. The audience warmly appreciated him and followed him closely in his utterances. At the earnest request of our citizens, Mr. Young will visit us again, and will lecture in the Court-house, Friday night, 30th inst., on "The Lost Arts."

PERSONAL.—Hon. Z. T. Cook, our Representative, was at home last Sunday. He returned by Monday's train. He is looking well, and thinks the Legislature will adjourn about the 28th inst. Mrs. J. L. Slavin, of Crab Orchard, was here last Saturday, the guest of Mrs. M. C. Miller, Jr. Miss Burdette Ray Jones, the sweet little daughter of L. S. Jones, of Louisville, is visiting her grandfather, Mr. J. J. Williams. Mr. Geo. Denby, of Lancaster, was here this week, looking after his farm and orchard. The peach-trees on his trees are not killed. Capt. Jack Adams has been quite ill for several days. His friends hope for his speedy recovery. Prof. R. L. Ganser, of Williamsburg, has organized a class of young ladies and gentlemen and proposes to teach them the beautiful art of penmanship. He has a large school, and is a capital instructor. Miss Helen Conn and Miss Sudie Woodward, two Brodhead beauties, accompanied by R. H. Conn, Esq., were in town Tuesday night.

—Wm. Adams & Co. have for sale a carload of superior Cedar Posts—for plank and post-and-rail fencing.

WAYNE COUNTY.

Monticello.

—Messrs. T. J. and Lewis Oatts have just returned from the South after having disposed of a lot of mules and horses at a handsome profit. These are two of the nine brothers of whom the Jeannet says, "they constitute the finest Oatts crop ever raised in Kentucky."

—If Wayne county could have nominated our next Commonwealth's Attorney, George Stone would undoubtedly have received that nomination, but he being no longer a candidate, Mr. Warren may rely upon the undivided support of his party in this portion of the district.
